MANY FAIR VISITORS.

LARGE NUMBER OF YOUNG LADIES WITH RICHMOND FRIENDS.

PAST WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Nearly Every Evening Marked by or More Social Events-Germans, Receptions, and Tens the Order-Personal Notes.

A large regiment of fair visitors has recently marched down upon Richmond. Their object in coming is not to see the noble James, Seven Pines, Washington's headquarters, St. John's church, where Patrick Henry made his liberty-or-death speech, or even the Confederate Museum. And their presence must indicate that we ourselves are a very attractive set of people, having a reputation for hospitality to the stranger within our gates. Among the charming visitors at present in Richmond are: Miss Sally Patton, of Blacksburg, with Miss Ellen Lee: Miss Margaret Patton, the guest of Miss Lily Urquhart; Miss Elder, who is staying with her aunt, Mrs. James H. Dooley; Miss Russell, of Washington, the guest of Mrs. Beirne Blair; Misses Sue and Mary Hayes, with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dimmock; the Misses White, of Abingdon, with Miss Bolling and Mrs. Charles Whitlock; Miss Cottman, of Baltimore, with Miss Annie Lee Alfriend; Miss Gulie Harrison, of Brandon, and Miss Belle Harrison, of Brandon, who are with Mrs. Warner Moore; Miss Jose-phine Dixon, of Buffalo, the guest of Miss bline Dixon, of Isuffalo, the guest of Miss Louise Alian Mayo; Miss Tunstall, of Washington, at Mrs. Alfred Gray's; the Misses Moran, at the Jefferson; the Misses Tinsley, at the Jefferson; Miss Lucy Shipp, with Miss Ellen Lee; Miss Mary Forbes, of Warrenton, the guest of Mrs. James Keith; Miss Lucy Stone, of Warrenton, with Miss Eathern Mos. of Mrs. James Keith; Miss Lucy Stone, of Warrenton, with Miss Kathryn Montague; Miss Emily Cary, of Roanoke, staying with Mr. and Mrs. John Cary, west Grace street; Miss Travers, of Flushing, N. Y.; Mrs. Dallas Flanagan, of New York, with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Coke; Miss Flora Harris, of Louisville, with Mrs. Hartley Carmichael; Miss Places of Clarke county, the guest of Page, of Clarke county, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter; Miss Ford, of St. Louis, and Miss Thrailkill, of St. Louis; Miss Agnes Page, of Clarke coun-ty, with Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page; Miss Anne Charity Johnson, of Staten Island, with Mrs. Bryce Stewart Hume; Miss Hayes, of Baltimore; Miss Helen Came-ron, of Petersburg; Miss Hobson, of Pemberton, Va., and Miss Annie Nash,

Miss Della Tompkins gave a tea to her Miss belia Tompkins gave a tea to her friends on Wednesday afternoon. The whole entertainment was an illustration of all the delightful characteristics that are reputed to belong to Virginia hospitality. The hostess made the enjoyment of each guest her especial care, and the genlus in the dining-room prepared a feast of rare excellence. The reception room, the parlor, and dining-room, opening one into the other, were arranged along the walls with groups of tall palma and vases of Testout roses. Mrs. Chris-topher Tompkins, in black and white bro-caded satin, assisted in receiving her daughters guests. Miss Delia Tompkins wore a beautiful gown of pink crepe. Those in the receiving party with her, were Misses Sophie Pitt of Baltimore. were Misses Sophie Pitt of Baltimore, pink silk; Kate Meredith, blue brocaded satin; Gabriella Page, yellow satin; Clara Beirne, blue silk; Julia Morton, cerise satin waist, brocaded skirt; Annie Rose Walker, cerise silk, white silk trimming; Mrs. Clifford R. Caperton, black La Tosca net over black satin, diamond ornaments. Miss Eda Atkinson presided at the punch bowl. Her gown was of white organdie over pink taffeta. Across the room Mrs. Horace Sterling Hawes, in blue and black silk, poured the chocolate. The charming young girls serving in the dining-room were Misses Bessie Tompkuns, pink silk; Neilie Tompkins, white organdie, pink ribbons Douglas Wise, white organdle, green ril bons; Ellie Carmichael, green silk; May Lindsay, pink chiffon; Ella Cocke, pink silk; Maude Stringfellow, white mousse-line de sole, over pink taffeta; Margaret Ferguson, pink silk, and Anne Lee, white

Among those present were Misses Skip-Among those present were Misses Skip-with, Sally and Margaret Patton of Blacksburg; Leila Myers, Flora Harris, Nellie Boykin, Anna Boykin, Calvin Bragg, Cotiman, Nora Moren, Fannie McGuire, Augusta McGuire, Lily Urqu-hart, Rose Caperton, Katherine Dou-that, Nina Randolph, Julia Lee, Annie Nash, Margaret and Helen String-fellow, Ella Bruce, Russell of Winchesfellow, Ella Bruce, Russell of Winches-ter, Annabel Jenkins, Esther White, Walker, Evelyn Gordon, Ellen Hobson, Jennie Boyd, Annie Gray, Carrie Talbott, Fiossie Talbott, Mary Hayes, Virgie Archer, Nannie Dunlop, Gibson, Mary Lyons Mayo, Adelo Archer, Thrailigill, Edna Forbes, Lou Arkins, Elie Maury Werth, Amy Werth, Margaret Cannot Mary Donnan, Mary Hill, Eleanor Bosher, Adele Williams, Virginia McLeod, Mary Rogers, Tyler, Mattle Purcell, Lina Mayo, Annie Drewry, Lisa Beirne, Annie Lee Alfriend, Kate Harris, Lula Harris, Marie Dunlop, Judith Deane, Esther White, Ford, Hayes, Marian Robins, Travers, of Flushing, N. Y.; Mary Page Williams, Grace Shields, and Margaret

On Monday night the Richmond Ger-man Club gave its fortnightly cotillon. This is the second from the last of the dances to be given before Lent. The last, an extra german, is to take place on February 22d. On Monday Mr. Wil-liam Palmer led a number of beautiful german figures. The dancers following his lead were the Misses Harris, Misses Nellie Boykin, Virginia Hayes, Adele Archer, Grant, Lisa Beirne and Clare Archer, Grant, Lasa Berne and Care Beirne, Annie and Lella Gray, Bessie Martin, Eleanor Bosher, Fannie Ross, Louise Mayo, Kate Meredith, Edna Forbes, Annie Lee Alfriend, Maria Moseley, Bessie Pace, Ethel Pace, Mrs. John Atkins, Mrs. Charles E. Smith, Miss Sue Skipwith, Mrs. Churchill Mrs. Fred. Pleasants. Young, Miss Berta Wellford; Miss Rusof Winchester, and Miss Mary Forbes, of Warrenton; Mary Cameron and Elsie Cameron; Helen Cameron, of Petersburg; Hobson, of Pemberton, Va.; Hayes, of Baltimore; Mary Hill; Dixon, of Buffalo; Shipp, of Lex-ington, Va.; Cottman, of Baltimore; Pitt, of Baltimore; Haughton, Tunstall, of Washington; Gabriella Page, Anne Tennant; Mary Page, of Clarke county, and Messrs. Thomas Carter, John Atkin-son, Thomas Bolling, Charles Antrim, William Grant, John Rutherfoord, Charles William Grant, John Rutherfoord, Charles Stringfellow, Edward Palmer, Adolphus Biair, Waller Morton, Fairfax, Bryan, John Currie, Liawood Antrim, Charles Williams, Otis Alfriend, Kirkwood Mitchell, Johnson, John Young, Carlton McKenny, W. S. P. Mayo, Watkins, Ellerson, Granville Gray, Watkins, Ellerson, Granville Gray, George Gibson, William Ferguson, Dill, Saunders, Hobson, Jake Anderson, Anderson and Richard Gaines. The chaperons were Mrs. Thomas Bolling and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter.

A card-party was given Wednesday evening by Miss Louise Alian Mayo in honor of her guest, Miss Josephine Dixon, of Buffalo. Miss Dixon is a appearly brunette, who makes "hosts of queenly brunette, who makes "hosts of friends" wherever the friends" wherever she stays. Her pres-ence on Wednesday was one of the pleaence on Wednesday was one of the plea-santest features of an altogether plea-sant evening. The ladies receiving then were Mrs. George Mayo, black brocade; Miss Louise Allan Mayo, black net over black taffeta, jet ornamentation; Miss Josephine Dixon, black net, embroidered in gold, with violet; Miss Annis Howard, n gold, with violet; miss annual foreign in pink satin, with trimmings of chiffon and mink fur; Miss Mary Lyons Mayo green brocaded satin, duchess ayo, green brocaded satin, duchess e. and violets; Miss Lina Livingston Mayo, gray satin, with pink chiffon violet gi trimming; Miss Sue Hayes, of Baltimore, Louise Tayloe, the early hours of the evening the ladies the early hours of the evening the ladies were entertained by playing seven-handed enchre, the result of which was that Miss Mary E. Moore gained the first prize and Miss Josephine Dixon the consolation prize. The gentlemen arriving at the end of the game. Mr. James Alston Cabell presented the prizes with a witty speech on the subject of prizes and their winning. Among those present were: Misses Mary Hayes, of Baltimore; Belje and Sue Hampton Tyler, Mrs. J. Alston Cabell; Miss Guile Harrison, of Brandon; Miss Hattle Ross, Mps. Een. Brandon; Miss Hattle Ross, Mps. Ben. Palmer, Mrs. Dallas Flanagan, and Palmer, Misses Marian Robins and Augusta Me-Guire, with Messrs, Percy Bosher, W. G. Stanard, Charles Anderson, Higginbotham, Hunter, William Johnson, Ed-ward and George Mayo, Cunningham Hail, John Palmer, Captain Allison, and Herbert Halle.

On Monday afternoon Miss Nellie Neale, niece of Mr. Charles O'B. Cowardin, entertained a few of her friends at a tea given in honor of Miss Brooke Byrd, of Gloucester county. The enter-tainment provided was so pleasant that Miss Neale's guests were tempted to lin-ger around the tea-table long after the usual hour for leaving. One of the charming features of the evening was the mandolin and guitar duet, played by Miss Carrie Coleman and Miss Nina Randolph. Besides, Mrs. Cowardin was induced to add to the musical treat by her checolate to the musical treat by her singling. Miss Lucy Coleman served checolate to the guests, who were: Mrs. Saddler (nee Evans), Misses Carrie Coleman, Nina Randolph, Julia Lee, Bruce Williams; Sue Tunstall, of Washington; Bowler, Helen and Catherine McIntyre, Nattle Purcell Mande Stringfellow: Analysis Purcell Mattie Purcell, Maude Stringfellow; Annie Nash, of Atlanta; Lou Adkins, Delia Tompkins, and Ellie Ellyson,

The Young People's Social Club was charmingly entertained recently by Miss Marnie Garnett McCarty. Progressive euchre was the amusement of the eveeuchre was the amusement of the evening, at which the first prizes were won by Miss Sophie White and Mr. Henry Hotchkiss; the second by Miss Addle Howe and Mr. Charlie Willis. The other players were Misses Mary Buford, Bessie Bosher, Nora Leary, Josephine Putney, Josephine Tyler, Mary Lathrop, Adair Minor, and Messrs. Thomas Purcell, Thomas Leary, Henry and Elmo Hotchkiss, Hill Urquhart, Walter Taylor, Robert Whitehurst, Randolph Cardoza, Moore Lathrop, Percy and Neville loza, Moore Lathrop, Percy and Neville Montague.

The Entertainment Committee of the Old Dominion Hospital arranged for a silver tea on Wednesday from 6 to 10 P. M. The tea took place in the store, No. 205 north Fifth street, with results which did great credit to the ladies concerned in its management. The ladies on the Entertainment Committee were: Mrs. Charles Y. Bargamin, Mrs. G. P. Hawes, Mrs. Sutton, Miss Isolene Moses, and Mrs. Spilling. Several of the most prominent young ladies served the refresh-ments. These were: Misses Anne and Dorothy Lee, Therese and Ida Bargamin, Annie Merrill, Bessie Hunter, Ellett, Mrs. Dr. Levy, Mrs. John Cullen, Mrs. A. B. Ferguson, Miss Jessie Webb, Miss Sue Skipwith, Miss Sadie Sutton, and Miss Carrie Loy.

The musical features of the entertainment, which were much enjoyed by the guests, were under the direction of Mr. Lewis Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan had the musical programme in charge, and di-rected that feature in the evening's entertainment with delightful efficiency, To Miss Nina Randolph's accompanient upon the plane (kindly loaned by r. Walter Moses), popular vocal se-Mr. Walter Moses), popular vocal sa-lections were charmingly rendered by Misses Lily Urquhart, Porter, Effic Cofer; Messrs, Clowes, Tibbett, and Eu-

The decorations of pink draperles and evergreens were most tastefully ar-

Notwithstanding the inclement weather on Monday afternoon, a goodly company assembled at the Woman's Club for the fortnightly tea, which was dispensed by Mrs. Charles Davenport. It was announced during the afternoon that Mrs. Ben Purcell had just received a telegram from Madame Medjeska, accepting an invitation to be present at the club on Friday afternoon, when an informal reception will be tendered her.

On Monday at 4:30 P. M. the second musicale of the season will be given, with Miss Louise Williams as chairman. Sh has secured the services of Miss Florence Dillard, of New York, violinist; of Miss Ethel Neely, of Norfolk, seprano singer, and of Mr. Arthur Scrivenor, baritone

The Oakwood Memorial Association have issued over two hundred fully engraved cards of invitation to a tea on Tuesday, February the 15th, from 8 to 11 o'clock. The hospitable home of Mrs. J. L. Taliaferro, 2606 east Grace, will be the scene of the tea, which will doubtless prove one of the most brilliant entertainments ever given in the East End. The commanders and members of the Sons of Veterans, the R. E. Lee Camp, and other military organizations in the city have been invited to attend in full uni-

Mr. and Mrs. Brydon Tennant gave a dinner party Friday evening in honor of Governor and Mrs. J. Hoge Tyler. The dinner in all of its appointments was one of the most elegant that has been given this winter. Red prevailed in the decorations of the rooms and dinner table, while in beautiful contrast with the rich crimson tints was the centrepiece of the table, a large silver contrepiece of the table, a large silver bowl of tall white Day lilles. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoge Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfax, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. C. O'B. Cowardin, Mrs. David B. Tennant, Judge and Mrs. E. C. Minor, M. T. C. Williams, Judge and Mrs. Keith. One of the pleasant promises for next week is in connection with the tea to be given on Tuesday for the benefit of the poor of the city. The ladies of the St. John's Circle of King's Daughters have the entertainment in charge, and have arranged to give each of their guests a roost delichtful evening in contents. a most delightful evening in exchange for the entrance fee. There are quite a large number of ladies to receive and serve and generally care for the pleasure of the visitors. The entertainment will take place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, which will be tastefully decorated with pink flowers and shaded larges. In the dining-room where the decorated with pink flowers and shaded lamps. In the dining-room, where the refreshments are to be served, Mrs. Klink will preside at the chocolate table, and Mrs. William Meyer at the coffee urn. A fine musicale has been prepared and will be carried out by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clowes; the No Name Quartette, with Captain Bossieux as leader; Mr. I. D. Briggs, and Mrs. Grace Shield as recker. Another attraction will be the graphophone, worked by Mr. E. W. Clemcher. Another attraction will be the graphophone, worked by Mr. E. W. Clemgraphophone, worked by Mr. E. W. Clemment. Those receiving are Mrs. F. J. Craigle, president; Mrs. Stephen Beveridge, vice-president; Mrs. A. D. Landikin, treasurer; Mrs. J. Ben. Howard, secretary, and Mrs. Grace Shields, Mrs. Emmet Dickerson, and Mrs. D. C. Richardson. The attractive young girls to wait in the dining-room are Misses Augus, Meagher, Mary Taylor, Schermerhorn, Gentry, Heinds, Scott, Mc-Kewiit, McGruder, Bossieux, Welsh, and Kewitt, McGruder, Bossieux, Welsh, and others equally charming.

Mrs. John Charlton will have in charge a table for home-made cakes.

The young art students who are members of Miss Lily Logan's school for drawing and painting may always be looked upon as a fortunate company; but looked upon as a fortunate company; but on Friday night they were more than usually lucky. Miss Logan gave to her class of 98 a fancy dress ball. The young girls and their friends all came in costume and mingling in the mazes of the german and round dances formed a brilliant spectacle. Miss Logan, as a lady of Perugia, wore a beautiful gown of black lace with Roman pearl ornaments. She received her guests at the ments. She received her guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. William P. de Saussure. Those present were Misses Catherine Douthat, Italian peasant; Rebekah Bell, Japanese; Daisy Hancock, violet girl; Nellie Davenport, flower girl; Louise Price. carnation girl; Louise Tayloe, Colonial portrait; Maria

Archer, Tyrolese girl; Mary James, Colonial girl; Anne Grant, nun; Hal Lightfoot, Klondike; Frances Williams, violet girl; Estelle de Williams, violet girl; Estelle de Saussure, Italian peasant; Nora Huston Swedish peasant; Nannie de Saussure snow maiden; Mary Dunn, Dolly Varden snow maiden; Mary Dunn, Dony Yarden; Georgia Wilson, Swiss peasant; Gate-wood Stevenson, Confederate flags; Kate Abernathy, sixteenth century; Sara Har-rison, Marguerite; Mrs. Rhodes; Ella Bruce; Posy Meredith, Bopeep; Annie Gordon, Japanese girl; and Messrs. Wil-liam Townes, William Harvey, Colonial gentleman; Frank Cunningham, Persian gentleman; Hugh Skipwith, Grey Skip-with: Murat Willis, Colonial gentleman; gentleman; Hugh Skipwith, Grey Skipwith; Murat Willis, Colonial gentleman; Adolph Osterloh, Robin Hood; Taze, Fitzgerald, old-time gentleman; Bev. Tucker, Colonial gentleman; Adderson Lewis, Clarence Thomas, Prince of Wales; William Michaux, Frank Green; Lightfoot Brooke, pedier; Fayette Wortham, Sam Tyler, Joel Perrin, Jim Tyler, Sam Lacy, J. Christian; Richard Wortham, Japanese; John Learry, the Messrs, Harrison, Lewis Harvey, Robert Peyton, rison, Lewis Harvey, Robert Peyton, Littleton Fitzgerald, Reed Venable.

. . . Mrs. Hunter Ferguson, of Church Hill, gave an elegant reception on Monday night from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. Her home was besutifully decorated for the occasion with vases of Madame Testout roses and pink-shaded lamps and candelabra. During the hours of the enter-tainment throngs of beautifully-dressed women and prominent men filled Mrs. Ferguson's parlors. Among these were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Frang Craigle, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lan dikin, Judge and Mrs. D. C. Richardson Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Craigie, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fergusson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fitz, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Beveridge, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwicke, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Adams; Mrs. Francee, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Luiu McPhail, Mr. and Mrs. Owens, the Misses Angus, Misses Lear, Andrews, Swain, Wells, Elia Walford, and Messrs. Edgar Fergusson, Hundley, Brown, Briggs, and John Fergusson.

Mr. Fred. C. Hahr on Wednesday night gave another of his delightful musicales. As the musicale was to cele-brate the anniversaries of Schubert and Mendelssohn's births, both of which oc-curred last week, the selections of instrumental and vocal music were chosen entirely from the works of these two great musicians. Mr. Hahr's pupils, who took part, played and sang with much skill. Mr. Hahr himself, it was generally remarked, played superbly with more than usual force and finish. The following programme was given;

ing programme was given:

1. Scotch Symphony, second and third movements, (Mendelssohn,) Miss Nolting and Mr. Hahr.

2. Reading, "Life of Mendelssohn," Miss Helen Waddey.

3. Moment Musical, No. 3, (Schubert,) Miss Mary Newton Williams.

4. Spring Song, (Mendelssohn,) Miss Rosa Morris.

5. Last Greeting, (Schubert,) Miss Policy Miss Rosa Morris. Rosa Morris.

5. Last Greeting, (Schubert,) Miss Bessie Pace.

6. Scherzo, "Midsummer Night's Dream," (Mendelssohn,) Master John

Marie | Powell and Mr. Hahr,

Miss Juliette McCorekle. 8. Duetto, (Mendelssohn,) Miss Margaret

A TYPICAL LEADER IN SOCIETY.

9. Reading, "Life of Schubert," Miss Jennie Hughes. Song," (Mendelssohn,) 10. "Spinning Master John Powell. 11. Impromptu, No. 3, (Schubert,) Miss

B. Walker.

12. (a.) Marche Funsbre, (b.) Volkslied, (Mendelssohn,) Miss Martha Painter. 13. Serenade, (Schubert,) Miss Bessie

Pace.
Violin obligato, by Miss Lilla Seeligson.
14. (a.) Songs without words, No. 25;
(b.), songs without words, No. 19, (Mendelssohn); (c.), Du Bist Die Ruh; (d.),
The Eriking, (Schubert-Liszt,) Mr. Hahr.

. . . The "Virginia Cousins," alias Miss The "Virginia Cousins," alias Miss Mary Lyons Mayo and Miss Louise Alian Mayo, have another of their interesting articles in the Munsey of this month. Under the title, "Veterans of the Con-federacy," they give brief sketches of the career of General Flizhugh Lee, the popular soldier and statesman; they give interesting mention of "General Simon Bolivar Buckner, the heroic veteran of two great wars, and his lovely wife, who, as Delia Claiborne, was a noted southern belle"; of General Dabney Maury, who founded the Southern Historical Society, and has an assured place both in our history and among our historians, and many others whose homes are outside of Virginia. The young authors, who are prominent in Richmond's best society, are granddaughters of the famous Gov-ernor Henry Wise. Among the most interesting of the pages of the February Munsey are those devoted to the "Veterans of the Confederacy.'

played her own accompaniment. While she sang the words of the homesick old In spite of the cloudy skies yesterday afternoon the fine goil-links of Lakeside drew out to the park quite a large num-ber of spectators and players. An inteloved Southland, there was a picture in the minds of some of a plucky little Tenresting game was played, after which the crowd gathered in the hospitable clubnessee woman away off in cold New York battling her way to success and fame by her voice, that is as mellow as the southern breezes and rich as the perfumes of its perpetual flowers. house to enjoy the bounteous repast tre-pared there. About dark the company left after a very delightful evening. Among those on the grounds were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. D. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. The programme arranged has many attractions, such as "Chaminade's Summer Song," the always beautiful "Ave Maria," a "Faust Fantasie," and other old favorites. During the concert Mr. Karger will play Paganini's famous solo for the G string on the violin, with only one string. Richard Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Levin Joynes, and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bolling, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Scott; Misses Carrie and Flossie Talbott, Mary Russell of Winchester, Adele Archer, Mary and Elsie Cameron one string. Glibert of New York, Lisa and Clare Beirne, Mrs. Gray Skipwith, and Misses The ladies of the Presbyterian and Annie Gray, Hattie Ross, Fanny Lewig, Annie Gray, Hattle Ross, Fainy Lewis, Ferguson, Sue Skipwith, Eleanor Bosher, Virginia Hayes, Edna Forbes, Thraitkill of St. Louis, Ford of St. Louis, Mary Hayes, Rhea Watkins, and the Misses Harris; and Messrs. Allan Talbott, Ran-Hayes, Rhea Watkins, and the Misses Harris; and Messrs. Allan Talbott, Randolph Holladay, Robert Campbell, William Johnson. William Ferguson, John
Currie. William Townes, Richmond
Lewis, Carlton McKenney, Wallace Carr,
Granville Gray, W. S. P. Mayo, Charles
Stringfellow, Linwood Antrim, John
Young, Jordan Leake, William Palmer,
George Gibson, E. Higginbotham, Frank Hobson, and Lancaster Williams.

The young ladies of Miss Alice Swain
Hunter's yocal class entertained a few

Talbott, Randolph Holladay, Robert Campbell, William Johnson, Williams, Frank
Mr. Brank Cunningham; gramophone,
Shubert brothers,
The Valentine Tea to be given on St.
Valentine-Day will be one of the most delightful entertainments given this year

Christian churches will hold a sympo-sium in the Woman's Christian Association pariors, for the benefit of that institution, on Tuesday evening, Febru-ary the 15th, at 8 o'clock. This will be

The Karger concert, to be given for musicians is Miss Jeannette MacClanahan. In speaking of her rendering of "I's Gwine Back to Dixis," one of the northern journals says: She responded to an encore and was again recalled, this time giving "I's Gwine Back to Dixle" with so much feeling that she brought tears to the eyes of many. She

7. Moment Musical, No. 2, (Schubert,) of their friends at Mrs. Colston's Friday for children. Not only will it give the evening. The following programme was children pleasure, but will help a no finely rendered: evening. The following programme was tinely rendered:

Part I.—"For What Thou Art," (Rosewing,) Miss Myrtle Atkinson; "At Parting," (Rogers,) Miss Fairinx Loving: (Rogers,) Miss Fairinx Loving: "Memories." (Neidlinger,) Miss Elizabeth Fisher; "Out On the Deep," (Lohr,) Miss Ellen Douglas Garnett; "A Dream," (Bartlett.) Miss Evelyn Bridges; "Duetto," from "Der Freischutz." (Weber.) Misses Camm and Watkins; "When Love Is Kind," (Werner.) Miss Bonibel Tillery, "Autumn Sadness," (Nevin.) Miss Annie Leigh Camm; "Romanza," from "L'Airtican," (Meyerbeer.) Mrs. Joseph P. Fourquean. can," (Meyerbeer,) Mrs. Joseph P. FourGurean.

Part II.—"Ave Maria." (Luzzi.) Miss
Lucile Pizzini; "Reveries." (Neldlinger.)
Miss Agnes McCarthy; "Se Saran Rose.
(Arditi). Mrs. Fourqurean; "Hush, My Little One." (Bevignani.) Miss Tillery;
"Scena Ed Aria." from "Der Freischutz." (Weber.) Miss Adelaide Watkins; "Aria." from "Samson and Delliah," (Saint(Chaminade.) Miss Camm; "Nymphs and Fauns," (Bemberg.) Miss Watkins; chorus with soprano obligato, "Ave Maria."
(Abt.) Mrs. Fourqurean and class.

of the Jefferson Club seems to turn out a social success. At least, such has been the case with the dances given there during the winter, and such was certainly the case with the musicale given the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick on Monday night, promises to be an entertainment well worth attending. The members of the concert company come highly recommended by the musical critics of Richmond, as well as northern musicians were Miss Emily Eisfeld, of Declaration of the concert that the musicians were Miss Emily Eisfeld, of Declaration of the concert that the musicians were Miss Emily Eisfeld, of Declaration of the concert, to be given for the link that the musicians were Miss Emily Eisfeld, of Declaration of the concert, to be given for tainly the case with the musical engine on Thursday, and the club's hospitable home on Thursday, was admirably arranged, and rendered with the musical programme was admirably arranged. on Monday night, promises to be an entertainment well worth attending. The members of the concert company come highly recommended by the musical critics of Richmond, as well as northern cities. Max Karger, the violimst, has recently returned from Europe, bringing with him many laurels. Another of the pusicians is Miss Jeannette MacClans, and the male quartetts including the male quartetts including. fundo, and the male quartette, including Messrs. May, Tribbett, Cardoza, and Lohman. Mr. Sam. Cohen made a grace-

Miss Mirlam Millhiser, as elocutionist, made a decided "hit," her audience reluctantly watching her disappearance be-hind the curtain after repeated encores. Mr. John Ryall, the singer of ridicu-lous songs, and the teller of humorous stories, was another star. He gave his audience, that always acceptable present, a good, long laugh.

The musicale was followed by an in-formal hop, which was much enjoyed by was served in the banqueting hall.

Hereafter every Tuesday evening is to be devoted to the pleasure of the ladies connected with the club, on which occa-sions the dancing hall will be lighted and provided with music.

The annual meeting of the Rebekah Peterkin Memorial Association will take place Wednesday at 12 o'clock. To comof Richmond's noblest women, Rev. Mr. Barr, will deliver a short address, and the home of Mrs. J. J. Gravatt, on Park

One of the chief amusements for next week is the Karger Concert, to be given in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick. It is said that a finer concert company has rarely visited Richmond.

The Matinee Whist Club spent Wednes. day evening very delightfully at the home of Mrs. Luther Warren, on Harrison street. Beside the regular members of the club, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkias, Mrs. Joseph A. White, and Mrs. Green were present.

The Fortnightly Whist Club met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Landikin, and with card-playing and their usual agreeable company, spent a very pleasant evening. Those present a very pleasant evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Beveridge, Judge and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Craigis, Mr. and Mrs. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Starks, Miss Fergusson, Mr. Southern, and Mr. Cheer, Fergusson.

The fashionable world is now very much excited over the reception to be given Wednesday evening by Major and Mrs. James H. Dooley, at May Mont. their palatial residence, just beyond the

Among the most elegant of the recent entertainments in Richmond was a re-ception given by Mrs. Alexander Cameron, in honor of Miss Burns, and Miss Cohen, of Baltimore. The decorations were a magnificent arrangement of American Miss Barksdale, who has been visiting Mrs. Mann S. Valentine, has returned to her home in Assument many friends here. her home in Ashland, to the regret of he All persons desiring to contribute to Founders'-Day dinner (for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms Hospital), are requested to notify Mrs. J. H. Claiborns, 612 cast Leigh street, at once, and to send contributions in the early forengon of Tuesday, February 15th, to 807 cast Main Miss Harriet Gilbert, of Harrisburg, Pa., is the guest of Miss Elsie Cameron

Miss Ella Jackson is visiting Miss Grace Currie, of Newark, N. J.

Mr. Lewis Hopkins, of Baltimore, is stopping at the Jefferson. Miss Emily Knox, of Gamble's Hill, gave a party to her young friends on Miss Johnson, of Connecticut, is the Miss Johnson, of Connecticut, is the guest of Mrs. New.

Miss Mary Lou Gray is the guest of Mrs. Robert Munford, east Cary street.

Miss Maggie Prosser, who has been visiting friends at Old Point, has returned to her home on east Grace street.

Mrs. William Mayo Tallaferro is visit-ing Miss Lizzie Tallaferro, Roanoke.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham, of Atlanta, are the guests of Mrs. Luther Warren. Mrs. Cunningham will be re-membered here as the charming Miss

Miss Lelia Gray left the city on Wednesday to visit in several of the northern Lewis Butt.

Mrs. Russell Robinson has returned from Washington, and is staying at Mrs. Duval's, 201 east Franklin street.

Mr. Richard Byrd, of New York, is at the Jefferson on a visit to Senator and Mrs. Flood. Miss Mary Coles Whittlee is stopping at the Jefferson. Miss Cottman, who has recently been visiting Miss Annie Lee Alfriend here, left on Friday for her home, in Baltimore. She leaves in Richmond a host of new friends, who hope that her return will be at an early date.

elegant card party.

Miss Morgan, of Petersburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Branch, No. 3 east Cary street.

Miss Alice Henning and Mr. Edwin Pal-mer are to be married in Grace Episcopal church, at high noon, February Zist. For the jonguil and hyacinth season there are two other weddings promised.

Miss Anne Tennant left Richmond a few days ago for Philadelphia, in order to attend the Midwinter Ball.

Mrs. John Skelton Williams will with a party of friends, leave shortly for Nassau, making the trip by private car over the Georgia Pacific Miss Marian Robins will leave Richmond for a ten-days' visit to friends in

The Woman's Club has another charming entertainment to record. On Friday afternoon an informal reception was given to Madam Modjeska by the club, with Mrs. Ben. Purceil as chairman. Judge and Mrs. Simonton, of Charleston, S. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Addir Pleasants, No. 11 each Franklin street.

THE D'FORD-DREWRY WEDDING THIS WEEK.

One of the society events of this week will be the marriage at St. Paul's church Wednesday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock of Miss Ellen Swan Drewry, the charming Miss Elien Swan Drewry, the charming and accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Drewry, of Mineola, Chesterfield county, to Mr. B. F. DeFord, of Baltimore. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Thomas Spencer, of Petersburg. No cards will be issued for the wedding. Mr. DeFord, who conducts two large tangeries in Virginia, will two large tanneries in Virginia, will reach the city Wednesday morning, and, with a large party of friends from the Monumental City, who will accompany him in a private car, will stop at the Jefferson. The couple will be married from the Jefferson, and after the ceremony will leave for an extended tour of Mexico. They had intended going to

PETERSBURG SOCIAL MATTERS. Several Interesting Functions During the Past Week.

PETERSBURG, VA., February 5 - (Special.)-Kind nature, in spreading a mantie of ice over the rivers and ponds in our vicinity, has provided another form of amusement for our gayety-loving young people, and skating parties galore have added charm and variety to the social functions of the week.

Mies Elise Harrison entertained delightfully the Matinee Whist Club on lightfully the Matines Whist Club on Wednesday, when Misses Margaret Zimmer, Carrie Pryor, Lillian Nichols, Martha Collier, Anna Ledbeater of Alexandria, Mary Meade Bernard, Leiper Venable, and Mary Zimmer, enjoyed as exciting game of duplicate whist and a very dainty luncheon.

On Wednesday Miss Latey Watson gave a most pleasant afternoon to a large the members of the Memorial Association, as well as the general public, are cordially invited to attend.

The next meeting of the Fortnightly Whist Club will take place on the 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Swain, corner of Beech and —— streets.

Mrs. John Cringan has opened in Richmond a bureau for social and domestic requirements. She is prepared to furnish menus, favors, and designs for entertainments, advice about cooking, marketing, and so on.

A silver teal successful, both socially and financially, took place last week at conditions and contrast to the cold and discomfort which reigned outside. The prizes, after eleven most interesting games, were awarded to Misses Leiper Venable and Sallie Bernard, the first, beautiful handpainted cracker-jar, and the second, a silver file. Those present were Misses Bessie and Leiper Venable, Mary Masis and Sallie Bernard, Light and Helen Leavenworth, Mary and Margaret Zimmer, Elise Harrison, Anna Ledbeater, Mary Patteson, Foster of Texas. Martha Collier, Grace McGill, Leavenworth of